
This non-fiction account connects the German recent past with its immediate future thus locating current trends and future outlooks within a broader context of German culture, politics, and social issues.

If you want to participate in reading one or both of these books, please connect with Mona Eikel-Pohen meikelpo@syr.edu